Tuesday, September 23rd, 1873. The Latest from Sitks.- Hows via Washington City!

WASHINGTON, September 16 -Admiral Pennock, commanding the North Pacific Squadron, reports that he has had several friendly talks with Alaska Indians. Many chiefs visited the ship and seemed to be impressed with the importance of being on good terms with the United States. There are only a few traders at quarters in the vicinity and no cettlement exists at Sitks. The Admiral visited Sitks and remained 17 days, during three-fourths of which time there was a heavy rain. The population is much decreased, and there has been a great falling off in trade. Exclusive of the Garrison there are not more than 30 inhabitants, mostly Russians and ball-breeds. For some years there has been bad blood between the Stickeen and Chilcot tribes, and when at Etalia Harbor Admiral Pennock was solicited by a Stickeen Chief to use his good offices in bringing about a reconciliation. The Admiral talked the matter over with the chief of the Chilicots, whom he found ready to bury the batchet.

THE SUSPENSION OF JAY, COOKS & Co .-The Seattle Intelligencer of the 20th, says the true cause of the great failure lies in the loans made to the North Pacific Railway Co.
The same paper says further: "It is well understood that Cooke has been making heavy advances to this company, so that their indebtedness amounts to from ten to twelve million dollars. This was too heavy a load to carry these hard times. If the assigness of Cooke push the railroad company for what they owe, as they will doubtless be obliged to do, the result will be the bank-ruptcy of the present organisation, and the transfer of the congern into other hands— better ones, it is to be hoped. Last night a better ones, it is to be hoped. Last night a private citizen of Seattle received a telegram from Tacoma, in the following words: 'Ali work on the town site suspended until further rders.' This is no doubt the first imme. diate result of this failure, on the Pacific telligence that the Government at Washing-

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.-Chelahun, arrested by special officer Lewis, of Sasnich, was brought up yesterday before Mr. Pemberton, charged with the wilful murder of George, also an Indian, on the 3rd of September, at the Indian village, South Sasnich. The murder arose from circumstances before mentioned, namely, revenge, because George informed on the prisoner in connection with killing and stealing cattle, the property of settlers in the district in which he lived. After hearing the evidence of several Indian witnesses, together with that of the special constable, and which was most conclusive of the guilt of the prisoner, the magistrate committed him for trial at the next assizes.

EAMERATION OF NOW. MEBSRS. JOHN YOUNG, HOLTON, MEBSRS. PENNY, WILSON AND OTHERS. MONTREAL, Sept. 5.—The inquiry into the purloining of Sir John Macdonald's letter to Mr. Pope, was carried on before the Police Magistrate to-day,

Hou. John Young was first sworn, and stated that on Wednesday last, the 3rd inst.

he had gene to the post office at 10 a. m. for his letters, and among others in his box he MOROCCO NEWS. received one which was an open note, signed by Sir John Macdonald and addressed to "Dear-Pope." It was dated the ast of September, and was identified with the one produced. He found the note was a slip of paper, which was also produced, on which EASTERN STATES. were the words, "Forwarded by a friend for the information of Hon, Mr Young," This slip and the note were enclosed in the envelope. No other paper or information as to who had sent it to his address was given. He read the letter twice, and came to the conclusion that some one was hoaxing him. He then crossed the street to the Herald office, where he found the Hon. L. H. Holton, who happened to be with Mr. Penny. The witness showed them the letter. Doubts were expressed as to its being genuine. He there upon left it with Mr. Penny, and later in the day it was decided to publish it, as, after some deliberation, be (the witness) believed that it would be for the interests of the pub lie that it should be published. It accordingly appeared in the Herald next morning. He had no knowledge whatever as to who sent it to him. This note was not marked private, but the corner of the left hand page was clipped off. Hon. Luther H. Holton was next examined, and stated that on the 3rd instant, he had occasion to call at the office of the Montreal Herald between ten and eleven in the forenoos. While there, the Hos. John Young came in and showed him a letter he had just got from the post office. That letter was

It was in a paper wrapper, on which was written, "from a friend, &c." Mr. Young's object in showing him the letter was to get his opinion as to the genuineness of the signature. He believed the signature was that of Sir John Macdonald, which he was familiar. He read the letter, and did not remember seeing the word private marked on it. One corner of the sheet had been cut off. Mr. Penny came in just then, and corroborated the deponent's opinion. Later in the day the Hon. A. A. Mr. Jas. Newland, the popular agent of Barnard & Co.'s express for the past two years, leaves for Clinton to-morrow, to take his office, he found the Hon. J. Young and L. H. Holton there. They produced the letter in question. It was signed by Sir Jon Macdonald. Both of those gentlemen expressed their opinion that the letter discovered a plot to commit a serious crime, and that it would niddle or end of October.
